Call for Proposals

Sowing the Future of Chicana/o Studies: A Student Research Symposium

In conjunction with our 50th Anniversary Celebration, the Department of Chicana/o Studies invites SDSU students to submit their original research centering Chicana/o/x communities, voices, and interests, for inclusion in our CCS Student Research Symposium, to be held April 17, 2020.

We encourage the submission of all types of student research and knowledge production—fully complete or in progress—including:

- Qualitative or quantitative empirical research
- Humanities research
- Performative/artistic work

Further details, a complete call for proposals, and information on submission coaching can be found at:
