Please join us for a panel discussion on the role of student activism in the historic takeover and creation of Chicano Park on April 22, 1970. The panel discussion focus will be the historical connections with San Diego State. Panelists will discuss their own experiences in the building of La Tierra Mía as student activists, bringing attention to the importance of preserving the history of the Chicana/o/x Community in the region, especially through the establishment of the new Chicano Park Museum and Cultural Center.

This event, leads into the week long virtual celebrations for the 51st anniversary of Chicano Park.
