Human Rights Abuses & Central American Families on the U.S./Mexico Border SYMPOSIUM

1. Honduran Exodus: LGBTI Migration in the 21st Century Suyapa Portillo Villeda, Ph.D. Associate Professor, Pitzer College

2. The Tangled Web: Violence and Central American Migration Linda Alvarez, PhD. Assistant Professor, CSU Northridge

3. From Obama to Trump: Constructing a Central American “Refugee Crisis” Leisy Abrego, Ph.D. Associate Professor, UCLA

5. The role of "Race" and "Racial Scripts" in Understanding U.S. Response to Central American Migrants Arely Zimmerman, Ph.D. Assistant Professor, Pomona College

6. Contemporary Human Rights Abuses in Nicaragua and in U.S. Asylum Policies Victoria González-Rivera, Ph.D. Associate Professor, SDSU

7. Not Your Tragic Other: Central American Solidarity, Identity, and Poetics Maya Chinchilla, MFA. Poet and Lecturer at UC Davis

8. The Legacies of Genocide: (Re) Framing Maya Migration to the United States Alicia Ivonne Estrada, Ph.D. Professor, CSU Northridge

Co-Sponsors: The College of Arts and Letters Dean’s Office, the Department of Women’s Studies, the Department of History, the Department of Political Science, the Department of Sociology, the Master of Arts in Liberal Arts and Sciences, the Women’s Resource Center, the Center for Latin American Studies, the LGBTQ Research Consortium, and the Center for Intercultural Relations.